

Please do not change the current regulations requiring airline passengers to turn off their cell phones. I've ridden on trains with multiple neighbors using cell phones. What used to be a peaceful trip is no longer--it is impossible even to read the newspaper. If cell phone use is allowed during flight time, I predict a huge increase in "air rage". Please, please, please, continue to protect the right to a peaceful flight.